Information

The Fayette Courthouse Music Series is a bi-annual music series held every Tuesday each March and October to take advantage of traffic for Round Top Antiques Weeks. This music series will feature musicians who would not necessarily play in and around Fayetteville. The concerts will be held on the courthouse square with the courthouse as the backdrop. Music genres will vary. Attendees will bring their own chairs and picnic dinners. Local restaurants can provide (for sale) items, such as charcuterie boxes, sack burger meals, etc. Retail businesses on and around the square will be invited to stay open late during shows. The concerts will be free to attend. If it rains, the concert will be cancelled for that evening. Revenue raised above costs will go toward the fund to maintain the historic Fayetteville Courthouse.
